

Information Letter No.4 EuroDIG 2009

Hello EuroDIGGERS!

This is the final letter of information before the EuroDIG conference starts. The organisers spared no effort to and look forward to welcome you in Geneva. The list of participants incredibly increased in the last week, we expect nearly 230 EuroDiggers from 31 European and 11 outer European countries.

We are very happy, that EuroDIG already has a lot of friends in Europe, never than less we like to apologise in advance if we can't offer headphones for translation service and chairs for everybody at any time. We kindly ask therefore for your understanding.

For all those who are not able to join the conference we offer web stream for remote participation in every session. You find the direct links at the website www.eurodig.org. Please note you need the Real Player to get connected.

Following to the conference we are going to setup different mailing lists for the main themes that where discussed, in order to keep the "European Dialogue" running.

Looking forward to your active participation in EuroDIG 2009!

If you don't want receive this information letter in the future please send a short message to office@eurodig.org.
